4:30-6:00 pm Potluck supper

6:00-8:00 Quarterly Ministry & Counsel

Sharing about the life in our monthly meetings and worship groups.

What future do we envision for VQM? How are we, as Quaker meetings and worship groups in central, midcoast and downeast Maine, called to be in supportive relationship with one another in these changing times?

8:00 on Games – bring your favorites!

Saturday, November 2 in the Commons, CCLC main building

8:30-9:00 Welcome with coffee, tea, and light snacks

9:00-10:00 Meeting for Worship, welcome & introductions

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-11:45 Worship Sharing – In these troubled times, what seeds of Truth are growing in our hearts and minds? What new stories are emerging? What old habits and stories might we need to mourn and lay to rest? As we consider our relationship with the land and indigenous peoples of Maine, Friends have walked faithfully in the past, and we fallen short. How is Spirit leading us now?

12:00-1:30 Lunch – Cobscook Friends will provide bread, soups and beverages. Contributions of fruit, veggies and cookies are welcome.
