Ex-Officio: Travis Belcher (Finance Committee Clerk), Linda Jenkins (YM Presiding Clerk), Ed Mair (Treasurer), Jonathan Vogel-Borne (YM Secretary)

Staff: Jeff Hipp

Guests: Ben Guaraldi, Cliff Harrison

- 10-74 Memorial Minute: During opening worship, we heard the memorial minute for Burt Knopp (Middlebury).
- 10-75 Minutes of 8/12/2010 were approved.
- 10-76 YM Secretary Report: Jonathan Vogel-Borne, YM Secretary, reported that the new staff are settling in. Nia Koch (YF/YAF Coordinator) has organized the first Young Friends' retreat of the year, and the attendance was larger than in the recent past, reflecting good energy. Jeff Hipp (Communications Director/Office Manager) is finalizing the Minute Book and the Fall issue of the NE Friend. The Minute Book will go to the printer on December 9 and should reach mailboxes in early January. Allie Hersey (Bookkeeper) is very busy during these months, working to close the books on FY2010, a task that must be completed before the Minute Book can be printed. Delia Windwalker (Interim Office Manager) will continue on staff through December, and she is working with Cliff Harrison to update/upgrade the database. Jonathan completed staff evaluations in September, but he will shift the timing of the evaluations in 2011 to try to complete them in June.

Jonathan reviewed the staff work plan that was provided with the advance documents. In developing the document this year, he is working with staff to address several questions: How can we move the organization from "OK" to "Good" to "Excellent?" How can we implement our vision of growing the YM? How can we reflect the YM's vision and goals in staff work priorities?

Jonathan reported on some recent events within the YM:

 More than 100 people attended the open house for Concord MM's new meeting house, which is both beautiful and very energy efficient; Joyce Ajlouny, Director of Ramallah Friends School, was in New England for two weeks, fundraising and building relationships; she visited each of the Friends schools in New England, as well as the gravesite of Eli and Sybil Jones, the School's founders. Jonathan was very involved in facilitating her schedule of visits.

Jonathan also spoke of the energy and momentum that continues to flow from YM Sessions and the themes captured in the Minute of Sending Forth: forgiveness; strengthening spiritual community; recognizing spiritual gifts; and encouraging witness. Peace & Social Concerns Committee is planning a gathering for Good Friday/Easter weekend in April, and two intervisitation initiatives have been launched. At the same time, the perceived exclusive Christian language in the Minute of Sending Forth is causing a bit of a stir in some meetings.

Recent and anticipated changes in leadership at national and international Quaker organizations promise significant transitions. Shan Cretin (former Clerk of Pacific YM) is the new General Secretary at American Friends Service Committee. Diane Randall (Hartford MM) has been approved as the next Executive Secretary at Friends Committee on National Legislation (beginning in March 2011). And Colin Saxton (superintendent of Northwest YM) has been designated the new General Secretary of Friends United Meeting (FUM), although he still needs to be approved by the FUM General Board.

10-77 Treasurer's Report: Ed Mair, YM Treasurer, presented the FY2010 Year-End Financial Report. While the numbers indicate that we ended the year with income covering expenses, Ed cautioned that the balance was achieved by a combination of factors: staff kept expenses lower than budgeted; the financial markets rebounded, yielding a positive change in fair market value "on paper" for the YM's investments; and a large one-time gift at the of the year made up the remaining difference. Ed noted that the YM approved a deficit budget for FY2011 and expressed concern about the need for increased contributions. He encouraged Friends to facilitate the efforts of Finance Committee and Development Committee to arrange visits with MMs, seeking to strengthen the connection and commitment to the YM.

Edward Baker noted that Nancy Haines, Clerk of the Development Committee has asked to make a presentation to PB in January.

Friends accepted the report.

10-78 Finance Committee Report: Travis Belcher, Clerk of the Finance Committee, reported for the Committee. Eileen Cummings has agreed to serve as co-Clerk for the Committee to ameliorate the challenges presented by Travis's distaste for computers and internet communications. Electronic communication with the Committee can be accomplished through Eileen. Shearman Taber is the new Recording Clerk for the Committee. Bruce Hawkins' long-time service in that capacity is appreciated and missed.

Travis reported that, in addition to the 15-month loan of $43,000 made to Friends Camp in August for the purchase of the new waterfront property (PB Minute 10-62), the Committee has also approved a bridge loan of $12,000 to allow the Camp to initiate renovations on the kitchen before summer registration income begins to arrive.

The large gift of $43,166 received in August was a one-time gift from the estate of the donor. Travis echoed the Treasurer's concern about contributions in the coming year and encouraged Friends to make sure local Friends are informed about the YM and aware of its financial needs.

However, Travis noted that the intervisitation process being coordinated by Finance and Development Committees is not just about money. A recent visit to a MM in ME involved no discussion of money, but generated goodwill through deep listening and building relationships.

On Saturday, March 5, 2011, the Committee will again host the "Funding Our Vision" gathering for MM Treasurers and Finance Committee Clerks. One Friend said that ongoing budget discussions at the MM level would benefit from knowing the expected contribution from MMs to the YM (per resident adult member). Jonathan Vogel-Borne said the figure will be published in the Minute Book, but estimated that it will be $110-$120 per resident member. The Treasurer noted that several MMs contribute at a much higher rate, offsetting MMs that find it challenging to make substantial contributions.

10-79 Administration of New England Friends Peace Tax Fund — Ruah Swennerfelt Administrator of the Fund, reported that she will be away for a period of time during the next year and asked PB to appoint a co-signer. Twice since 2003, Friends have asked for their contribution to be returned to meet IRS demands. Ruah reviewed the Fund's approved procedure requiring the Fund to turn the money over to the IRS "under protest" if the IRS approaches the fund directly. She raised concerns, however, about the need to update the language in the trust agreements signed with individuals who choose to contribute to the Fund and about moving the account to TD Bank, following the recent transfer of the YM's accounts to TD Bank. Jonathan Vogel-Borne consulted the Finance Committee's Handbook to confirm that the Finance has oversight of the Fund and would therefore need to discuss and approve such changes.

Friends approved re-appointing Ruah Swennerfelt (Burlington) as Administrator and appointing Linda Jenkins (North Sandwich) as a co-signer for the Fund.

Finance Committee will review the language in the trust agreement and work with Ruah on moving the account. Coordinating & Advisory Committee will review the structure and procedures for the Fund and report back to PB.

10-80 Coordinating and Advisory Committee Report: Linda Jenkins, YM Presiding Clerk, reported for the Committee. The Committee is working hard to support the staff, but she expressed deep concern that we are not providing adequate care for our staff. She drew a comparison with the ongoing transition at Friends General Conference. Facing a major budget reduction, it seems that a reduction in FGC staff is not being matched by a reduction in programming. She noted that our YM staff job descriptions explicitly acknowledge that the jobs require more than 40 hours per week.

C&A and Sessions Committee are moving ahead with planning for YM Sessions

2011, seeking to discern what changes from this past August will be carried forward. It's likely that there will be anchor groups and some "meetings to hear God's call," but they also anticipate having bible half hours. A Friday (pre-Sessions) trip to the Great Meetinghouse in Newport is being explored. The business agenda will include the review of committee Purposes & Procedures, preliminary approval for new chapters of Faith & Practice, and review of the FUM contributions procedure that was continued for this coming year.

Linda reviewed the letter she sent to Committee clerks that was included in the advance documents. She spoke of her concern that there are too many YM committees, that we have no one willing and able to serve as clerk of Nominating Committee, and that many committees have "stable," long-term membership.

Linda is pleased to see Peace & Social Concerns Committee continuing to labor with the concerns expressed in the Minute of Sending Forth. Their planning for the two-day gathering in April is proceeding in a very Spirit-led fashion, with well-attended meetings. Cambridge continues to have a monthly extended worship; but more attention is needed for this concern. There is indeed some "stirring up" over the language in the minute, and Linda has offered to meet with MMs and individuals to listen and to engage with their concerns over the language. She asked that Friends let her know of other meetings or individuals who are feeling "pained" by the minute.

Linda has found herself clear to lay down the role of YM Clerk after August Sessions 2011. She has mixed emotions about this decision, but she is filled with joy about the 9 months ahead. She asks PB to consider how the YM might provide better support to the YM Clerk. Other YMs have more institutional structures of support – e.g. some previous clerks have an explicit accompanying role. She fears that the lack of such supports makes the position of Presiding Clerk an impossible role for many people to consider taking on.

10-81 YM Committee and Organizational Structure: The Clerk introduced a discussion of the YM's committee and organizational structure by thanking Jonathan Vogel-Borne, Linda Jenkins and Jan Hoffman for gathering together the documents, distributed in advance, that provide the background for this discussion. This background helps us both to understand that these questions are not new for us and to reflect upon all the work and discernment that has gone before.

Jan reported that her review of the documents during the previous week had reminded her that the Long-Range Planning Committee believed that there are perennial questions that will arise repeatedly in the life of the YM. Staffing and committee structure are two such concerns that are linked together. Having completed a staffing restructure, it is logical that we now turn our attention to the committees. It's also very important to acknowledge all the work that has already been accomplished in recent years, especially with regard to staffing structure and strengthening our youth programs.

The Clerk reminded us that PB had asked the staff to begin gathering together documents for the creation of a procedures manual (Minute 10-26). Jan reported that she, Jonathan and Jeff Hipp had met to compile documents that already exist, and as a result, we now have 26-page document. Jonathan reviewed the current table of contents, noting that there are several appendices in addition to the 26 pages of the primary document. Jan described an introductory section to SEYM's procedures manual that provides a basic overview of how the YM works, and she suggested such an introduction would be a useful feature for NEYM's document. A principal reason for this document would be to make the structures we have more transparent and available to the people and constituent bodies of the YM. Jonathan proposed that we begin calling this an "Organizational Handbook."

Friends then began a lengthy discussion (continuing after lunch) about the YM's committee structure and the role and structure of PB. Written reflections from the immediate past clerk of the YM Nominating Committee about the overwhelming nature of the Committee's task provided some context for the discussion.

Some representative comments about the committee structure were:

- Nominating Committee's central role should be the calling forth of God's gifts by discerning who among us has those gifts and helping to nurture them.
 Unfortunately, the Committee does not get to do much of that work, due to the time pressure of so many positions to fill.
- The important thing about being Quaker is meeting together, and it's important to support the spiritual life of committees as a way to bring people together while doing something useful.
- Some of our committees are moribund, and most of them are too big. We need to prune them to find new life.
- We could identify specific committees to lay down, or we could identify processes that would lead to laying some of them down.

Much of the discussion about PB's role and structure focused on consideration of reorganizing PB as an "Interim Meeting" structure similar to that of some other YMs. Such a body would likely be comprised, at least partially, of appointed representatives and would be empowered to make decisions between annual sessions. Some comments on this topic were:

- Any such change would be a change in "Faith and Practice," requiring approval of Sessions.
- Concerns about a larger body, with representatives from 68 MMs some of them very small, and about the risk of long-term, self-appointed representatives, led to a proposal for representatives to be appointed by Quarters. Another Friend suggested a hybrid model, with some appointed representatives and some nominated at-large members.
- Having MM representatives means that every MM will receive a mailing, along with an agenda for the meeting.
- Interim Meeting can provide the structure for a mid-year gathering, with other activities happening as part of a long weekend.
- A representative body might lead to individuals feeling the weight of concern for representing one's constituency rather than responding to the movement of the Spirit in discernment.

Coordinating & Advisory Committee will gather the various recommendations on committee restructuring put forward in recent years and report back to PB. The Clerk suggested the need for an ad hoc subcommittee to reflect further on how the establishment of an Interim Meeting structure would affect the YM. Cliff Harrison and Sandy Isaacs agreed to serve in this capacity and to exchange ideas and information with C&A Committee.

- 10-82 Report of Personnel Committee: Edward Baker reported for the Committee. Jennifer Baily (Fresh Pond) has agreed to serve as Clerk of Personnel Committee. Judith Shea is moving to Philadelphia and will no longer serve on the Committee.
- 10-83 Report of Internal Nominating Committee: Donn Weinholtz, Clerk of Internal Nominating Committee, reported for the Committee, presenting the following recommendations:
 - Clerks Nominating Committee Patsy Shotwell (Wellesley), class of 2013
 - Internal Nominating Committee Karen Sanchez-Eppler (Northampton), class 2013; Donald Mick (New Haven), class of 2013
 - Memorial Minutes: Allan Kohrman (Wellesley), class of 2013

Friends approved these recommendations.

10-84 Report of YM Nominating Committee: Christopher McCandless, co-convener of the YM Nominating Committee, reported for the Committee.

He first presented the following names for committee appointments:

- Friends Camp Committee Steve Knight (Vassalboro), class of 2013; Karen Proulx (Winthrop), class of 2012; Laura Street (Fresh Pond), class of 2013
- Sessions Committee Carolyn Stone (Wellesley), class of 2013; Diane Weinholtz (Hartford), class of 2013
- Friends General Conference Elise Pearson (Cambridge), class of 2013; and David Rush (Cambridge), class of 2013
- Friends World Committee on Consultation Mary Hopkins (Cambridge), class of 2011
- Board of Managers of Investments & Permanent Funds Rowan Spivey (Brunswick), class of 2015
- Committee on Nurturing Friends Education at Moses Brown School Thia Lord (Providence), class of 2013
- Friends Committee on National Legislation (Representative to General Committee) – Katherine Fisher (Beacon Hill)

Friends approved these recommendations.

10-85 Recommendations from Puente de Amigos Committee: Edward Baker reported on behalf of the Committee. The Committee recommends the following Friends for travel in the ministry as representatives of New England Yearly Meeting to Cuba Yearly Meeting (CYM): Noah Baker Merrill (Putney) and Victoria Hollingsworth Rhodin (Hanover). These two Friends will attend CYM's annual sessions and visit some of the Cuban monthly meetings in February 2011. NEYM has not sent representatives to CYM's annual sessions for many years.

Noah has a travel minute from his monthly meeting, endorsed by his quarter that supports his call to ministry among Friends, and his leading to travel among Cuban Friends will be guided by his oversight committee.

Victoria is a member of the Puente de Amigos Committee who has had a leading to travel to Cuba for several years. The Committee supports her leading to participate in this trip, though we are aware that she has not yet completed a discernment process with her monthly meeting. The Committee asks that the Permanent Board approve Victoria for travel to Cuba, pending her receiving approval from her monthly meeting.

Permanent Board approved Noah Baker Merrill and Victoria Hollingsworth Rhodin for travel in the ministry as representatives of New England Yearly Meeting to visit among Friends of Cuba Yearly Meeting in February 2011, with the understanding that Victoria will complete the appropriate discernment process with Hanover Monthly Meeting.

10-86 Friends World Committee on Consultation World Conference in 2012: Edward Baker reported on behalf of the FWCC Committee. FWCC has called a World Conference to be held in April 2012 in Nakuru, Kenya. The last such conference was held in 1991 on three sites (Honduras, Kenya, and the Netherlands), with upwards of 25 New England Friends attending. This conference will be smaller than the 1991 one, but larger than the intervening FWCC Triennials. (More information is available at www.saltandlight2012.org.)

After an extensive process of outreach and discernment, the Committee recommends the following Friends to fill the six slots allotted to NEYM for delegates to the 2012 World Conference: Ben Guaraldi (Beacon Hill), Noah Baker Merrill (Putney), Hal Weaver (Wellesley), Dorothy Grannell (Portland), Cynthia Ganung (Wellesley), and Laurel Brill Swan (Hartford).

In addition, the Committee recommends the following Friends as alternates in the event of unexpected changes in plans: Jeff Hipp (Cambridge), Frederick Martin (Monadnock), Andrew Grannell (Portland), Debbie Humphries (Hartford), Marian Baker (Weare), and Margaret Hawthorn (Monadnock).

Friends approved appointing these Friends as delegates and alternates to the 2012 World Conference.

10-87 Travel Minute for Noah Baker Merrill: The Clerk presented a travel minute for Noah Baker Merrill (Putney), previously approved by Putney Monthly Meeting and endorsed by Northwest Quarter. The minute "affirm[s] his work in building relationships and waking hearts among the people of Iraq, among Friends, and elsewhere." Noah has been traveling in the ministry among Friends, including leading retreats and joining in worship. He will travel to Cuba Yearly Meeting in February 2011 and to the FWCC World Gathering in 2012.

Friends approved endorsing this travel minute.

- 10-88 Report of Clerks Nominating Committee: Jan Hoffman, Clerk, reported for the Committee. Greg Williams, who is preparing for cancer treatment, has resigned as Reading Clerk. The Committee recommends Will Jennings (Beacon Hill) to serve as Reading Clerk at Sessions in 2011. Friends approved.
- 10-89 Review Purposes and Procedures for Permanent Board: The Clerk addressed the need for reviewing the Purposes and Procedures for PB. One Friend suggested that it would be helpful to review the Purposes and Procedures for all the PB-related committees at once, recognizing that the language for several committees was altered as part of the staffing restructure process (see PB Minute 09-27). The Clerk will gather the appropriate materials, and we will take up this matter in January.
- 10-90 Minute of Gratitude: Friends spent some time in worshipful reflection on the gifts of service provided by former staff member Katherine Clark and Kimberly Allen. Recalling the outpouring of gratitude expressed in ministry during worship on Sunday morning at Sessions, and recognizing that it was not minuted at Sessions, we are pleased at this time to minute our gratitude for the service and ministry of Katherine Clark as Administrative Secretary and Kimberly Allen as Young Friends/Young Adult Friends Coordinator. The Clerk will follow up with letters to both of them. Friends approved.
- 10-91 Minute of Thanks: Friends express their deep appreciation to Woolman Hill for hosting this meeting and to Mt. Toby Friends for nourishing us at lunch.
- 10-92 Closing Worship: We closed in waiting worship, planning to meet again on Saturday, January 22, 2011 at 9:30 AM at Wellesley Monthly Meeting.

NEW ENGLAND YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS

The Religious Society of Friends in New England

Witnessing to the power of God in our lives...Spirit led to faithful action

To: Clerks of Yearly Meeting Committees and Clerks of Monthly Meetings

Re: A Mission Statement for the Yearly Meeting

Greetings Friends,

At sessions in 2008 we asked Permanent Board to consider and work on a mission/vision statement for the Yearly Meeting as part of our "year of discernment." During sessions in 2009 we heard a report from the ad hoc committee of Permanent Board which worked on this and they presented the mission statement that had been approved by Permanent Board to be brought to sessions.

Many were pleased with the wording presented, some offered a few small but useful suggested changes, but there was also some resistance to adopting these words as a statement of mission for the Yearly Meeting. We did not reach unity on the issue and the minute approved suggested more work be done. We did not return to that work during sessions and so Permanent Board took up the topic as an item of business at its November meeting. The minute we approved at that time is as follows:

Responding to Sessions' expression of the need for further discernment on this question of a mission/vision statement, we believe there may be value in these words. Therefore, we will forward this statement (reprinted below) as a Minute of Purpose to the YM Committees and Monthly Meetings, asking them to consider it during the coming year and to discern its usefulness for our lives together. We will then see where we are when we gather again in August following some months of living into it.

The statement:

Witnessing to the power of God in our lives...Spirit-led to faithful action.

Yearly Meeting provides a voice and a center for Quakers in New England, upholding monthly and quarterly meetings through support, resources and connections so that Friends can do God's work.

New England Friends come together in worship and fellowship from a rich diversity of theological perspectives and both unprogrammed and pastoral traditions. We are called to listen deeply to the Inward Guide and to each other as we seek to be a gathered faith community.

Witnessing to the power of God in our lives, we envision a vibrant and growing Quaker presence in the world, Spirit-led to faithful action.

This letter then Friends, is that follow-up. We ask that you consider this statement of mission, gauging its usefulness to your work, and let us see where we are led at sessions in 2010. In peace,

Edward Baker

Clerk of Permanent Board
