

Supporting youth and families during a pandemic crisis

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/ValiantTogetherQuakerRE/>

Facebook group called Valiant Together hosted by the Quaker Religious Education Collaborative, sharing ideas and resources in response to the Covid-19 crisis. Vibrant and robust, and not only for First Day School.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i_plboAM3dI

Quaker Faith & Play story entitled Listening to God on the Godly Play Foundation YouTube Channel, told by Melinda Wenner Bradley, Director of Communication and Training at Faith & Play Stories, the Youth Religious Life Coordinator at Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, and organizer of Valiant Together Facebook group.

<https://www.billharley.com/miniconcerts/>

Info on Grammy-award songwriter/storyteller/performer Bill Harley's free online mini-concerts for the duration of the crisis. Bill is a member of Providence Meeting, NEYM.

<https://www.riseupandsing.org/singing/fun-families?fbclid=IwAR2-C0xqOZFAXMPZPZ5cS6NL071TlwNjg3LJQ0-2qliWah4cfMFZYWX7N58>

Rise Up Singing's page sharing Ideas for keeping spirits up during the pandemic. List of free online concerts by well-known artists, as well as activities and songs. Annie Patterson & Peter Blood are members of Mt. Toby Meeting, NEYM.

https://www.common sense media.org/resources-for-families-during-the-coronavirus-pandemic?fbclid=IwAR3ldbknREG0V1mpbu0LvYeQoxDIrpBzU0qI5_geie8eezS1H4z_6GdFHyA

Resources for Families from Common Sense Media, particularly for keeping children at home during the pandemic creatively engaged.

https://www.autismspeaks.org/sites/default/files/flu_teaching_story_final%20%281%29.pdf

Everyone Gets Sick Sometime is an illustrated story that explains germs, flu progression, and preventative strategies in clear, reassuring text. PDF format can be printed.

https://store.samhsa.gov/system/files/pep20-01-01-006_508_0.pdf

Talking With Children: TIPS FOR CAREGIVERS, PARENTS, AND TEACHERS DURING INFECTIOUS DISEASE OUTBREAKS from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration.

GBaker-Smith, NEYM, 3.19.20