

This Meeting for Worship is sponsored by Friends House Moscow, a small Quaker non-profit living out Friends' testimonies in service to the people of Russia, Ukraine and beyond.

We invite you to join other Friends holding in the Light all the people affected by the current crisis in Ukraine.

The room opens at 8:45 a.m. Pacific time; worship begins on the hour and ends an hour later.

Watch for clock changes over the next few weeks as Daylight Savings Time changes with the season.

We ask that you allow the first 10 minutes for centering in silence and the last 10 minutes also in silence to let the messages settle in our hearts.

The host will mute everyone at the beginning of Worship. Please leave yourself muted unless giving ministry.

Please leave a cushion of silence between messages, giving everyone a chance to fully absorb the message and return to centering.

Use the chat only for contacting the host if you are having technical difficulties. Other messages can be distracting.

If you are new to Quaker unprogrammed worship and wish to talk with someone about it, send a message to the host and someone can join you in a breakout room.

After Worship has concluded, you may use the chat for other messages and you will be invited to a breakout room where you can introduce yourself to a small number of Friends and share thoughts that did not rise to the level of ministry.

On Sunday, there were 488 Friends in worship together here. Attached are some of the messages shared in the chat.

Peace in our hearts, Peace for all the people,
