

Text Messaging

Effective: June 20, 2025

Your privacy is important to us, so we've developed this Privacy Policy for Text Messaging, which explains how we collect, use, and disclose your personal information. This is a supplement to the Data Privacy Policy posted at <https://neym.org/data-privacy-policy>.

If you have any questions, concerns or complaints regarding this supplemental Privacy Policy or how we use your personal information please contact us via e-mail at neym@neym.org.

What Personal Information We Collect and How We Collect It

We collect personal information that you provide directly to us.

If you sign up to receive text messages from us, we will collect your name, email address, and any other information needed to contact you as a registrant of New England Yearly Meeting Annual Sessions .

How We Use Your Personal Information

We use the personal information we collect for the following reasons:

- To share time-sensitive updates on Sessions activities, schedule or location changes, or health and safety concerns.
- To reply to your questions, inquiries, or customer service requests or to send you notices, updates, security alerts, or support and administrative messages.

How We Share Your Personal Information

We will not share your personal information with any other party beyond the Yearly Meeting, or for any purpose beyond the mission of New England Yearly Meeting of Friends.

We may be legally required to disclose or share your personal information without your consent in some circumstances, for example to comply with a court order or law enforcement. In such circumstances, we will only disclose your personal data if we have a good-faith belief that such sharing is required under applicable legal obligations.

You may unsubscribe from text messages through a link we include on messages we send you. You can also ask us to stop sending you text messages at any time by contacting us at: neym@neym.org.

Retention of Your Data and Deletion

Your personal information will not be kept longer than is necessary for the specific purpose for which it was collected.

The foregoing will, however, not prevent us from retaining any personal information if it is necessary to comply with our legal obligations, in order to file a legal claim or defend ourselves against a legal claim, or for evidential purposes.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We have the right to modify this Privacy Policy when necessary. We're unlikely to update this Privacy Policy, but you may wish to check this page from time to time for the latest information on our privacy practices.
