

Connecticut Valley Quarterly Meeting Retreat Woolman Hill, Deerfield, MA

SAVE THE DATE

October 2nd - 4th, 2026 (Friday dinner through Sunday lunch)

Saturday Program: Remaining Spiritually Grounded During Troubling Times

Led by Emily Savin, writer and performer, Pendle Hill Friend in Residence, founding member of Three Rivers Meeting, and former staff with Friends Committee on National Legislation and Beacon Hill Friends House.

The Retreat itinerary will include:

- Adult and youth programs and childcare
- Sharing of Ministry & Counsel, and Peace & Social Concerns experiences across Meetings
- Potluck dinner and informal program on Friday
- Saturday evening Open Mic "Talent/ No Talent Show"
- Sunday morning program and worship in the Woolman Hill Meetinghouse
- Delicious, nutritious vegetarian meals provided

Lodging: Modern lodging facilities, rustic cabins, and camping are available.

Registration: Registration Forms will open on August 1st, and include the expected costs per adult for the weekend. This event is pay-as-led, no charge for children.

Want to learn more? Contact the organizers at your respective Monthly Meeting:

Joe Pandolfo, Ray Fricano (Storrs - coordinating Meeting, joelpan@sbcglobal.net), LouAnne McDonald, Anne Herzog (Hartford); Pam Tinto (Mt Toby); Kim Stoner, Maria Lamberto (New Haven); Leeland Cole-Chu (New London); Susan Vargo (Northampton).